Join us in celebrating the release of 2 new children's books from bestselling children's book author Adeline Foo. Adeline, along with illustrators Lee Kowling and Christine Lim Simpson will be at the Singapore Writers Festival to launch their latest creations.

Set in China during the Qing Dynasty, the story Guai Wu, The Chinese Elf, offers a retelling of the classic Grimm Brothers' fairytale, The Elves & The Shoemaker, with an elfin child repaying kindness with love.

In Georgette's Mooncakes, discover a magical tale retracing the origins of the Mid-Autumn Festival. The story of Puteh, the litte nonya, also carries on in this book. Georgette's Mooncakes is the first book in a new series featuring the inspiring works of Singapore's pioneer artists, using art as a backdrop and the paintbrush as a magical tool.
